Join Main Line Designer Jan Pecarsky & Salon Norman-Dee as they Help Make a Difference for the Ronald McDonald House

Date Dec 16, 2008
04:00 PM until 07:00 PM

The fun and fabulous of Philadelphia will meet, greet and shop 'til they drop while working to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of Philadelphia, which provides families with a safe, comfortable home environment while their children receive medical treatments at local Philadelphia hospitals.

Come celebrate a nationwide fundraising movement while enjoying a day of great jewelry shopping and fabulous food, provided by Phoebe's Bar-B-Q, at the renowned Salon Norman-Dee in Philadelphia.

Description

Targeting stylish women who enjoy shopping for the latest accessories, celebrated artist and jewelry designer Jan Pecarsky is thrilled to showcase her fall/winter pieces to the guests of Salon Norman-Dee. Infusing must-have designs with high-fashion style, Pecarsky has created an eye-catching, one-of-a-kind jewelry collection using only semiprecious gemstones, beads and precious metals for each of her handcrafted pieces. Pecarsky creates a palette of originality, consistently hand-selecting all of her materials so that no two pieces are alike.

This fundraising event will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 16 from 4-7 p.m. at Salon Norman-Dee, 1619 Grant Ave. in Philadelphia. For directions, contact the salon at (215) 676-0554. To check out Jan Pecarsky's fall/winter collection, visit: www.jansbeads.com.
